CURRICULUM VITAE

Abstract:

Michael Daniel is a visiting research fellow at the University of Tübingen, Germany (from July 2024 to September 2025). For 2026-2029, his project of studying the evolution of morphosyntax of East Caucasian languages at Jena Univeristy has been confrimed by DFG (Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft). His areas of interest include the languages of the Caucasus and Russian grammar; sociolinguistics, particularly variationist studies, multilingualism and contact linguistics; linguistic typology, particularly morphology and semantics of grammatical categories; and acoustic phonetics. Major projects he participated in include World Atlas of Language Structures, Ustja River Basin Corpus, Atlas of Multilingualism in Daghestan and Number in the World's Languages. He was also involved in creating the Eastern Armenian National Corpus (www.eanc.net) and worked on the Russian National Corpus (www.ruscorpora.ru). He did descriptive, documentation and sociolinguistics fieldwork on northern dialects of Russian and on various languages of Daghestan, including Archi, Mehweb, Rutul, Tukita; typological studies on grammatical categories; and acoustic studies on rare sound patterns. From 2007 to 2022, he taught a wide range of courses in general linguistics, sociolinguistics and language diversity at the HSE University and the Lomonosov Moscow State University. He was a visiting research fellow at MPI for Evolutionary Anthropology, Leipzig (2000-2001 and 2009), at Collegium de Lyon (Université Lyon 2) / Laboratoire Dynamique du Langage (CNRS) (2016-2017 and again from 2022 to 2024), and at Hamburg University (in 2022). He is a member of the Academia Europaea from 2023.

TEACHING AND ACADEMIC SUPERVISION

Courses taught:

MA and BA courses at the HSE University (Moscow) and Lomonosov Moscow State University. Teaching at HSE MA level is done in English.

2024-2025

- Introduction to Sociolinguistics (University of Tübingen) 2024-25 (winter semester, in English)
- Introduction to Mehweb (ILARA EPHE) 2024 (Fall semester, in French)

2005-2022

- Introduction to Linguistics - BA (School of Linguistics HSE)
- Introduction to Language Diversity - Languages of Russia - BA (School of Linguistics HSE)
- Morphology - BA (School of Linguistics HSE)
- Typology of Grammatical Categories - BA (School of Linguistics)
- Sociolinguistics - BA (Lomonosov Moscow State University)
- Linguistic Typology - BA (School of Linguistics HSE) (co-taught with Yury Lander)
- Introduction to Linguistic Families and Areas of the World - BA (School of Linguistics HSE) (minor contribution, co-taught with Yury Lander)
- Sociolinguistics - MA (School of Linguistics HSE) (in English)
- Typology - MA (School of Linguistics HSE) (in English)

Supervisor of several student research groups, including:

- Lexical changes in Russian. 19th-20th centuries (Higher School of Economics, grant for a student-teacher research group) in 2010-2011, one of the PIs, resulted in the publication of an edited volume
- A Corpus Study of Variation among the Speakers of the Ustja Dialect (2013-2014, one of the PIs; 14-05-0034), resulted in the publication of a paper in Language Variation and Change in 2019; see also parasolcorpus.org/Pushkino; in certain years, the fieldwork team involved students from the University of Bern
- Field study of Mehweb Dargwa (2016-2017, one of the PIs), resulted in the publication of a collective volume by Language Science Press in 2019
- Field study of Kina Rutul (2018-2022, one of the PIs)

Supervision of MA and Ba theses and term papers:

Dozens of papers, including the following prize-winning:

- ○ Anastasia Alekseeva. First prize in 2022. Morfologija sistem tipa Minimal-Augmented (na materiale jazykov Južnoj Ameriki) [Minimal-augmented systems in the languages of South America]

- ○ Maksim Bažukov. Second prize in 2020. Dinamika rasširenija n-form mestoimenija tret'ego lica s formami sravnitel'noǐ stepeni (po dannym korpusa) [A corpus study of the expansion of n-forms of the third person pronoun with comparatives]

- ○ Ekaterina Vološina. Honorary mention in 2020. Diaxroničeskiǐ vzgljad na tipologiju padežnogo kodirovanija adresata reči [The typology of case marking of Addressee of Speech: a diachronic view]

- ○ Polina Nasledskova and Ivan Netkačev. First prize in 2018. Ordinal numerals in Northeast Caucasian languages as a shared grammaticalization.

Supervision of PhD projects:

- Correlative constructions in Ossetic by Oleg Belyaev (2014)
- Evidentiality as part of the TAM system in East Caucasian by Samira Verhees (2019)
- Typology of ordinality (Polina Nasledskova)
- Valency alternations in Neo-Aramaic (Elena Shvedova)
- Lexification of mixed languages (Ekaterina Gridneva)

(the last was interrupted when I left HSE University).

FUNDING

Grants (externally funded):

- Five Languages of Eurasia (www.philol.msu.ru/~languedoc), supported by the National Science Foundation (#0553546, 2006-2011, fieldwork). Funding: $480,280.
- Eastern Armenian National Corpus (non-institutional, www.eanc.net), 2006-2009. Funding: private donor, on the order of $ 500,000
- Linguistic Convergence Laboratory (https://ilcl.hse.ru/en/), a research center with the status similar to that of European centers of excellence intended to attract international collaboration and promote academic visibility of HSE University, supported by the Russian government for two three-year rounds in 2016-2019 and 2019-2022; co-author of the original application and leading research fellow since the beginning of the Lab to 2022. Funding: state-funded, on the order of € 1 mln.
- Evolution of grammar in East Caucasian: Grammaticalization of unusual patterns of number agreement, individual grant from Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft (€ 362,000)

Grants (funded by HSE University during my employment there):

- One of the four co-founders of the School of Linguistics at the HSE University, from 2011 to 2022 (ling.hse.ru/en/)
- Evolution of Semantic Systems (Max Planck Institute for Psycholinguistics - Nijmegen, www.mpi.nl/eoss) - member of the consortium (supervising the Russian dataset)
- Atlas of Daghestanian Multilingualism (https://multidagestan.com/) - second PI, from 2011 to 2022
- Laboratory of the Languages of the Caucasus, HSE University, head of the Laboratory; PI (2014-2016)
- Ustja River Basin Corpus (http://parasolcorpus.org/Pushkino), one of the three PIs, 2013-2017

A series of projects funded by the Linguistic Convergence Laboratory

- Daghestanian Loanwords (http://lingconlab.ru/dagloans/, 2017-2020) - one of the four principal investigators, resulted in the publication of a paper in Language
- Swadesh lists from Daghestan (http://lingconlab.ru/dagswadesh/, 2020 to the present) - one of the two principal investigators
- Acoustic research on ejectives, pharyngealization and pharyngeals in Daghestan, in cooperation with Dr. Sven Grawunder (Halle) and Dr. Alexandre Arkhipov (Hamburg), ongoing; resulted in a publication at Phonetica and several ICPhS proceedings

- Typological Atlas of Daghestan (http://lingconlab.ru/dagatlas/), founder and consultant

PROFESSIONAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE TRACK

- 2011-2022 professor at School of Linguistics, HSE University
- 2016-2022 academic supervisor of the MA programme Linguistic Theory and Language Description (School of Linguistics HSE University)

As the academic supervisor, I was responsible for all programme related administrative workload, including:

  - interviewing the applicants to the programme and evaluating their portfolios;
  - compiling the curriculum and scheduling classes
  - setting up evaluation committees and supervising evaluation of research projects / diplomas
  - creating assignments for contests / competitions to enter the MA programmes of the School of Linguistics (including Linguistic Theory and Language Description, Computational Linguistics, Russian as a Foreign Language, Digital Humanities)
  - interacting with permanent lecturers
  - contacting scholars for invited lecture / courses (including, among others: Johan van der Auwera, Damian Blasi, Östen Dahl, Mark Donohue, Hana Filip, Stefan Gries, Martin Haspelmath, Silvia Luraghi, Ian Maddieson, Matti Miestamo, Marianne Mithun, Barbara Partee, Eric Reuland)

- 2016 - 2022 senior researcher at Linguistic Convergence Laboratory (ilcl.hse.ru/en/about), HSE University
- 2022 visiting scholar at the University of Hamburg
- 2022 - 2024 fellow of Collegium de Lyon / Laboratoire Dynamique du Langage
- 2024 to the present research fellow at the University of Tübingen

also,
- 2004 - 2009 (part employment) researcher at the Institute for the World Culture (Lomonosov Moscow State University); associate professor at the department of theoretical and applied linguistics, from 2009 to 2022 (part time employment);
- 2000, 2009 visiting scholar at MPI for Evolutionary Anthropology, Leipzig
- 2016 - 2017 associated fellow of Collegium de Lyon affiliated with Laboratoire Dynamique du Langage

Doctorate: Russian State University for Humanities, A typology of Associative Plurals. [In Russian] Supervised by Aleksandr Barulin and Vladimir Plungian. (Типология ассоциативной множественности; 2001 ALT award for the best PhD in linguistic typology).

Organization of educational events:

- Member of the organizing committee of the Online Overview Course on East Caucasian Languages (2019) and of the Second Online Course on East Caucasian Languages (2020) (see https://ilcl.hse.ru/en/east_caucasian/)
- Member of the organizing committee of the International Summer School on Areal Linguistics and the Languages of Russia in 2018 (https://ling.hse.ru/indling2018/)

Dissemination of research to a wide audience (public lectures):

- Public lectures at Moscow's schools in the 2010s to enroll students to BA programmes in linguistics
- Interview on minority languages here: https://sysblok.ru/interviews/jazyk-i-tochka-nevozvrata-intervju-s-lingvistom-mihailom-dani jelem-o-sohranenii-jazykov-i-jazykovom-raznoobrazii/
- Public lecture on contact varieties of Russian: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WjrWUkeIVKc
- A podcast on my research is available from the website of Collegium de Lyon here (in French): https://collegium.universite-lyon.fr/podcast-confluence-of-research-worlds-studying-linguisti c-typology-within-the-astonishing-diversity-of-languages-in-dagestan-with-michael-daniel-3 31895.kjsp

Professional gaps: From 2001 (when I obtained my PhD) to 2011 (when I started working at HSE University), I only worked in academia part-time because of the financial situation of my family (children born in 1999, 2003, 2011). After I left Russia in 2022, my publication rate has been slowed down by my continued search for a permanent academic position.

Doctorat (PhD, Russian *кандидатская диссертация):

Типология ассоциативной множественности (A typology of associative plurals). Manuscript, Moscow, Russian State University for Humanities, 2000. The degree was awarded on April 20, 2001. ALT prize for the best typological PhD in 2001. Supervised by Aleksandr Barulin and Vladimir Plungian. [In Russian]
